Freedom Bound
Friday, Feb. 10, 2012
1 p.m.
Grades: 3rd – 8th

Freedom Bound is an original play with music that tells the tale of the most important incident in the history of the Underground Railroad in Ohio. The show follows the story of Addison White, a slave who escaped from Kentucky and traveled the Railroad north to the small town of Mechanicsburg. There, he was befriended by a farmer, Udney Hyde. He lived in Hyde's barn, working for his meals by day and learning to read and write with the help of Hyde's daughter, Amanda, by night. Hyde was a suspected abolitionist, however, and it was not long before Addison was discovered by his former Master. Federal marshals surrounded Hyde's cabin in the middle of the night. They were prepared to arrest Addison and return him to slavery, but over 100 citizens from Mechanicsburg confronted the marshals and demanded that they set Addison free. Freedom Bound uses drama and music, as well as riddles and rhyme, to create characters that emerge from the past and bring the Underground Railroad to life.

Sylvester and the Magic Pebble
Friday, March 16, 2012
1 p.m.
Grades: Pre-K – 3rd

When Sylvester, a winsome donkey, picks up a shiny red pebble, its magic spins a heartwarming story that reveals to him the true importance of family and friends. Sylvester and the Magic Pebble was honored with the prized Caldecott Medal for children's literature. In Enchantment's production, Sylvester learns that magic works very well sometimes — he can turn the rain on and off! — but it can also work against him — when he transforms himself into a rock to escape a hungry lion. How will he escape from the rock? How will his loving family ever find him? Will he ever get home?
